

TETFund Boss Eulogises BUK, FIRS ...Charges other Institutions to Emulate

By Lamara Garba

The Executive Secretary of Tertiary Education Trust Fund (TETFund), Professor Suleiman Elias Bogoro, has eulogised the Management of Bayero University, Kano and FIRS for their commitment and judicious utilization of the Fund's intervention over the years.

Speaking in Kano on Wednesday, 25th November, 2020 at the opening ceremony of the Annual TETFund/FIRS interactive Forum with beneficiary institutions at Bristol Palace Hotel, Professor Bogoro exceptionally “Today, in the Nigerian University system, Bayero University, Kano stands out to be exceptionally excellent in terms of performance in the utilization of the Fund's intervention. BUK always leads in terms of performance of TETFund allocation. They are just so good. I commend the management for this,” said the TETFund Boss.

The theme of the Interactive Forum was “New Thrust in Sustaining the EDT Collection during COVID-19 Pandemic for Effective Service Delivery of the Fund.” He further charged other beneficiaries of the agency to acknowledged the commitment and diligence exhibited by the Federal Inland Revenue Services (FIRS), which collects funds on behalf of his agency, noting that this exceptional qualities have made it possible for the agency to carry out its responsibilities without much hitches.

Professor Suleiman Bogoro in particular, said the FIRS had always been forth coming in discharging its responsibilities with utmost zest, passion and sincerity.

“We never found them wanting, nor have any cause to quarrel. To me, this is an indication of the integrity and honesty of the personnel.”

Turning to Bayero University, the TETFund boss noted that the University was second to none in terms of accountability and proper utilization of the resources allocated to it by the Fund, thus making it the best in all the tertiary institutions in Nigeria.

emulate the quality work of BUK.

Earlier, the Executive Chairman of FIRS, Alhaji Muhammad N. Mani, who was represented by Mr. Pam Davou, reaffirmed the commitment of his agency for discharging its responsibility with utmost zeal and commitment.

Also speaking, the Chairman of the Board of TETFund, Alhaji Kashim Ibrahim Imam, reiterated the commitment of the government for proper funding of the education sector. He revealed that President Muhammadu Buhari was very much committed to improving the standard of education in the country.

In his goodwill message, the Vice Chancellor, Prof. Sagir Adamu Abbas express gratitude to TETFund explaining that but for the agency, it would have been very difficult for many institutions to survive.

New BUK Senate Building Gladdens TETFund, Urges other Varsities to Replicate it ...Says Chairman of Board

By Lamara Garba

VC, BUK, Prof. Sagir A. Abbas (1st left) pointing at something of interest to the Board Chairman of TETFund, Alhaji Kashim Ibrahim Imam and other dignitaries during a tour of the new Senate Building

Henceforth, any University in the country wishing to seek TETFund's intervention to construct Senate Building, such institution must be prepared to replicate BUK's new Senate Building, Chairman of the Fund's Board, Alhaji Kashim Ibrahim Imam, has disclosed.

Speaking when he led the Board and Management of TETFund and Federal Inland Revenue Services (FIRS) on a project tour in Bayero University on Wednesday, 25th November, 2020, he said the agency was very much impressed with the quality and the architectural design of the new Senate building which was named after the former Vice Chancellor, Professor Abubakar Adamu Rasheed.

"This building is special and unique with modern architectural design in addition to an excellent quality work, and therefore, we, at TETFund, will not hesitate to recommend to any institution that would want to construct a new Senate building to come and copy this one," said the elated chairman.

According to Alhaji Kashim Imam, with the construction of the new Senate building, Bayero University has further confirmed its leading position in quality work, which put it ahead of others in terms of utilization of the agency's intervention. "This is another milestone and a big credit to the management of this institution. I am highly impressed with this and I will recommend all other universities who have no Senate buildings to come and replicate this one in their institutions," he remarked.

The Board Chairman while congratulating the Management of BUK for having a befitting Senate Building, noted that it takes a prudent and credible Management to put such a magnificent building within a short period.

Earlier, while taking the Chairman of the Board of TETFund round the new Senate building, the Vice Chancellor, Professor Sagir Adamu Abbas, said the building was constructed by an indigenous contractor, while the design was conceptualised at one of the University management's meetings during the tenure of Professor Abubakar Adamu Rasheed.

The Vice Chancellor who expressed profound gratitude to TETFund for making it possible to complete the building, said the University remained grateful to the agency. He also said the University would never disappoint the agency in any way.

Also contributing, the Executive Chairman of FIRS, Alhaji Muhammad N Mani, who was represented by his Director, Mr. Pam Davou, said what they saw in BUK was impressive as "it soothes the heart and encourages us that our intervention has been judiciously utilized by the beneficiary institution."

ANAN Seeks Supports from BUK

Sports Directorate Rolls Out Plan to Celebrate VC's 4 Months in Office ... Organizes Football Friendly between Old Campus and New Campus

By Nura Garba

The Directorate of Sports has rolled out plans to celebrate the 4 months in office of the Vice Chancellor, Professor Sagir Adamu Abbas, in sporting fashion.

Speaking in his office on Wednesday, 10th November, 2020, the Director, Malam Usman Salihu, noted that specifically the Vice Chancellor clocked 100 days in office and the Directorate planned to celebrate his four-month in office.

“As you can see, he has achieved a lot in his first 100 days and I have the conviction that by the time he clocks 120 days in office many things could be further achieved. Therefore, we plan to celebrate it in sporting fashion by organizing a football friendly match between the Old Campus and New Campus,” said the Director.

Also speaking, the Deputy Director, Technical, Dr. Musa Njidda, said the friendly match would also University community, which has laid a good foundation for him to build upon.

He said ANAN, which believes in interactive knowledge, association networking and opportunities, was in Kano for mandatory training, which he said was another option for training accountants. He said ANAN believed in review to enhance the system by identifying the obstacles in governance and accounting structures and also finding a way to overcome them.

The Vice Chancellor, Professor Sagir Adamu Abbas, while welcoming the Association of National Accountants of Nigeria (ANAN), said the training was apt because he believed something tangible would be done to resolve the challenges facing accounting system in Nigeria. Professor Abbas disclosed that BUK had never experienced leadership crisis for the past 30 years and has the reputation of looking at the system and not individual. He assured the Association of BUK's support and advised that a lasting solution should be found on the lack of synergy between a graduate of accounting and what he is made to practise at the work place.

The Dean, Faculty of Management Sciences, Professor Hamid Tahir, in his vote of thanks, expressed gratitude to BUK Management for its continuous support, adding that Bayero University's Department of Accounting would be signing an MoU with ANAN, which when finalized, will seek the blessing of the University Management.

-VC Tells BUK's Muslim Forum

By Sabitu M. Jinjiri

The Vice Chancellor, Prof. Sagir Adamu Abbas, has expressed his delight over the manner in which a delegation of the University's Muslim Forum prayed for him and wished him a God-fearing tenure.

The VC said that even though others had visited him and prayed for him after his assumption of office in the last 100 days, he had been touched and moved more by the prayers and good advice of the Muslim Forum's delegation.

The delegation, which was led by the forum's Chairman, Dr. Nu'uman Habib, visited him on Monday, 23rd November, 2020 at the VC's Committee Room.

The VC, Prof. Abbas, remarked that “it is good that you prayed for me to have assistants that are helpful.” He also asserted that every leader need the support and good advice of his assistants.”

Prof. Abbas, who disclosed that among his priorities was to graduate the University's students on time and to provide the University's staff with working condition and atmosphere for service delivery.

The VC also expressed his readiness to assist the forum in having a modest secretariat of its own.

Earlier, the Chairman of the forum, Dr. Nu'uman Habib, said they were at the VC's office to pray for him to discharge his duties appreciably. Dr. Habib said, “we pray to Allah to surround you with able lieutenants so that when you do right, they will urge to do more; and when you do otherwise, they will draw your attention to change for the better.
